

I do NOT want to have the banking industry or any other industry to be allowed to telephone my home unless I give them specific notice to do so. If the banking industry is allowed to make calls, this will open up the telephone to other industries as well and I do NOT want this. If they want to make their services known they can use the other avenues of advertising as they do now.